

2-SPIRITED PEOPLE OF THE 1ST NATIONS

FULL-TIME EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

2-Spirited People of the 1st Nations provides prevention, education and support for two-spirit, including First Nations, Métis and Inuit people living with or at risk for HIV and related co-infections in the Greater Toronto Area. We base our work on Indigenous philosophies of wholistic health and wellness. Our future shows a strong, healthy and independent two-spirit community in Toronto where HIV infections are rare and two-spirit people live with pride in their Indigenous heritage.

SUPPORT SERVICE WORKER

The Support Service Worker is responsible for providing support and practical services to people living with and affected by HIV/AIDS and those at risk. This is a hands-on role with strong visibility in the community, responding to client requests for support/practical assistance and, working with agency volunteers to help deliver the services. The incumbent will assist in determining community needs and then evaluating the effectiveness of the support/practical services. This role will develop and implement ideas to best promote the services.

Experience with support/practical service programs is preferred. This role involves community outreach, driving clients to appointments, assisting with culturally appropriate supports, collaborating with the Client Care Coordinator and assisting with intake. At least one year of practical support experience is preferred. It is important for the person in this role to understand the importance of reclaiming of two-spirit health in conjunction with language, culture, traditions and identity within the immediate and broader two-spirit and HIV/AIDS community. Excellent knowledge of Aboriginal history, cultures and traditions is required. Ability to speak an Aboriginal language is an asset along with a valid driver's licence. The anticipated starting salary range for this role is $42,000 to 45,000.
