

2-SPIRITED PEOPLE OF THE 1ST NATIONS

FULL-TIME EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

2-Spirited People of the 1st Nations provides prevention, education and support for two-spirit, including First Nations, Métis and Inuit people living with or at risk for HIV and related co-infections in the Greater Toronto Area. We base our work on Indigenous philosophies of wholistic health and wellness. Our future shows a strong, healthy and independent two-spirit community in Toronto where HIV infections are rare and two-spirit people live with pride in their Indigenous heritage.

CLIENT CARE COORDINATOR – CASE MANAGEMENT

This role is responsible for the intake of new clients, assessment of needs, developing case files and client care plans, determining specific short and long-term goals, coordinating services/referrals and developing a more integrated network of care for clients in the community. Care plans and Referrals include but are not limited to medical/health services, financial counseling, bereavement services, housing assistance, food bank assistance, housing and settlement support, traditional medicines, counseling, coaching, etc. The person in this role will develop strong working relationships with various community-based organizations and will also be involved in public speaking engagements. A relevant university degree is preferred (i.e. social work, mental health) along with several years of experience in case management, counselling and client care coordination. It is important for the person in this role to understand the importance of reclaiming of two-spirit health in conjunction with language, culture, traditions and identity within the immediate and broader two-spirit and HIV/AIDS community. Excellent knowledge of Aboriginal history, cultures and traditions is required. Ability to speak an Aboriginal language is an asset. The anticipated starting salary range for this role is $52,000 to $58,000.
